St. Patrick's Parish welcomes you.

Please take your bulletins home with you. We request that you do not leave bulletins and other items in the pews. Many thanks.

Welcome to Our Christian Community

For all the baptized, children or adults, faith must grow after Baptism. For the grace of Baptism to unfold, the parents' help is important. So too is the role of the godfather and godmother, who must be firm believers, able and ready to help the newly baptized - child or adult - on the road of Christian life. The whole ecclesial community bears some responsibility for the development and safeguarding of the grace given at Baptism (CCC 1253 - 1255).

We welcome the following children to the household of faith through the waters of Baptism: Nixon Monk, Quintin Hakim, Hazel Martens, Nathan Gaspar, Lorenzo Gomes, Jonathan Hart, Samuel Braga and John Wells. Let us pray that they will continue to grow in faith, bearing witness to Christ by a life of holiness and service.

Hospital Visits and Holy Communion

As the result of ever increasing privacy restrictions at the Cambridge Memorial Hospital, the members of our Ministry of Compassion Team may not be able to identify some of our Catholic parishioners who have recently been admitted. In order to assure that one of our team members will visit or bring Holy Communion to your loved one while in hospital, please be certain to call the parish office and give the name and room number of the person needing to be seen. St. Patrick's hospital visitation usually takes place on Wednesday.

Bequests and Memorials

When preparing or updating your will, please prayerfully consider a contribution to St. Patrick's Parish as an expression of your gratitude for the gift of faith. This will help to assure that the church will be able to nurture that same faith in future generations. You might also consider making a donation to the parish in memory of someone at the time of, or on the anniversary of their death.

Changes To Note

Please note that there will be no Eucharistic adoration on Friday July 8.

What is Forbidden by the Seventh Commandment?

Above all, the seventh commandment forbids theft, which is the taking or using of another's property against the reasonable will of the owner. This can be done also by paying unjust wages; by speculation on the value of goods in order to gain an advantage to the detriment of others; or by the forgery of cheques or invoices. Also forbidden is tax evasion or business fraud; willfully damaging private or public property; usury; corruption; the private abuse of common goods; work deliberately done poorly; and waste. (Taken from: Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

The Ten Commandments

Decalogue means "ten words" (Exodus 34:28). These words sum up the law given by God to the people of Israel in the context of the Covenant mediated by Moses. This Decalogue, in presenting the commandments of the love of God (the first three) and of one's neighbor (the other seven), traces for the chosen people and for every person in particular, the path to a life freed from the slavery of sin (Comp. # 436).

1. I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange gods before me.
2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
3. Remember to keep holy the Lord's day.
4. Honour your father and your mother.
5. You shall not kill.
6. You shall not commit adultery.
7. You shall not steal.
8. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour.
9. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife.
10. You shall not covet your neighbour's goods.

Good News From the Knights of Columbus

Knights of Columbus Council # 2184 is pleased to report that, following the Roses for Life campaign at St. Patrick's, St. Ambrose and Our Lady of Fatima, $750 each was given to both Cambridge Right to Life and to the Cambridge Pregnancy Resource Centre.

Saint Vincent de Paul Society

The SVDP Society would like to thank parishioners for their generous support. Donations of food each week are urgently needed and appreciated. Food donations may be placed in the SVDP box located in the narthex of the church or may be dropped off at the parish office during weekday office hours. There is a continuing need for: cereal, canned fruit and canned vegetables, canned meats and fish, peanut butter and pasta sauce.

The Beatitudes Guide Us On The Path of Christian Life

Pope Francis has urged Christians to follow the indications provided in the Beatitudes in order to avoid taking the path of greed, vanity and egoism. Speaking during a Mass at the Casa Santa Marta the Pope drew inspiration from the Gospel of Matthew and said the Beatitudes can be used as "navigators" that shine the light on the pathway of Christian life.

Reflecting on the famous Sermon on the Mount, Pope Francis said Jesus' teaching on that occasion did not erase the old law; rather it 'perfected' it bringing it to its fullness: "This is the new law, the one we call 'the Beatitudes'. It's the Lord's new law for us".

He described it as the roadmap for Christian life which gives us the indications to move forward on the right path. The Pope continued his homily commenting on the words of the evangelist Luke who also speaks of the Beatitudes and lists what he calls the 'four woes': 'Woe to the rich, to the satiated, to those who laugh now, to you when all speak well of you'.

And recalling the fact that many times he has said that riches are good, what's bad the Pope reminded us is 'the attachment to riches' which becomes idolatry. "This is the anti-law, the wrong navigator. The three slippery steps that lead to perdition, just as the Beatitudes are the steps that take us forward in life" he said.

And elaborating on that thought the Pope said the three steps that lead to perdition are: "the attachment to riches, because I need nothing;" "Vanity – that all must speak well of me, making me feel important, making too much of a fuss... and I am convinced to be in the right" he said, referring also the parable of the self-righteous Pharisee and the Tax Collector: "O God I thank you that I am such a good Catholic, not like my neighbor..." "The third – he said – is pride, the satiation and the laughter that closes one's heart".

Of all the Beatitudes – the Pope said there is one in particular: "I'm not saying it is the key to all of them, but it induces us to much reflection and it is: Blessed are the meek. Meekness". "Jesus says of himself: 'learn from me for I am meek of heart', I am humble and gentle at heart. To be meek is a way of being that brings us close to Jesus" he said. "The opposite attitude, Pope Francis concluded, always causes enmities and wars...lots of bad things that happen. But meekness, meekness of heart which is not foolishness, no: it's something else. It's the capacity to be deep and to understand the greatness of God, and worship Him". ### Please Observe a Reverent Silence in Church

Talk to God before Mass – and talk to each other after Mass – and please ensure that all mobile devices are switched off to avoid distracting others who are in prayer. Children are most welcome. The narthex or the parish hall should be used as a crying room if needed. Thank you.
