THE CENTRAL MYSTERY OF THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes the Trinity as the "central" mystery of faith. It states, "The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the "hierarchy of the truths of faith" [GCD 43]. The whole history of salvation is identical with the history of the way and the means by which the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, reveals himself to men "and reconciles and unites with himself those who turn away from sin" [GCD 47]" (CCC 234).

A NEW FIRE ALARM SYSTEM - AT LONG LAST!

It's no secret that our antiquated fire alarm system has been in a sorry state for a long time and is now in need of replacing. Our diocesan insurance company insists that this has become a safety issue and that the situation must be rectified. Experts inform us that further repair to the current system is no longer possible. It has been determined that the estimated cost of the project is $25,000. Donations to offset the cost of this project will be most welcome. Please use the special envelopes located in the narthex of the church marked 'Fire Alarm System.' Be sure to include your information on the envelope so that tax receipts may be given. Thanking you in advance for your generous support.

MISSA PRO POPULO

Whenever the Eucharist is celebrated the needs and intentions of the entire human family, both living and dead are included - in fact all of creation is included. However, the tradition of giving offerings to have Masses celebrated for specific intentions dutifully fulfill the seventh spiritual work of mercy: to pray for the living and the dead.

In the mass intentions cited in the parish bulletin the term pro populo is indicated as the intention for the 11 am Sunday Mass. The term pro populo in Latin means "For the People" and Canon Law (534 §1), the code of law which governs the Catholic Church, requires every pastor (or administrator) to offer one Mass pro populo, every Sunday and Holy Day of Obligation for the intentions of the parishioners that are entrusted to him.

DEVOTION TO MARY

Earliest fresco of the Virgin Mary, Catacomb of Priscilla, 2nd century

The Church's devotion to the Blessed Virgin is intrinsic to Christian worship and so the Church rightly honours the Blessed Virgin with special devotion. By pronouncing her "fiat" at the Annunciation and giving her consent to the Incarnation, Mary was already collaborating with the whole work her Son was to accomplish.

From the most ancient times the Blessed Virgin has been honoured with the title of "Mother of God" (Theotokos) to whose protection the faithful fly in all their dangers and needs...This very special devotion...differs essentially from the adoration which is given to the incarnate Word and equally to the Father and the Holy Spirit and greatly fosters this adoration. We revere all saints with dulia (human reverence and devotion) and Mary with hyperdulia (the greatest human reverence and devotion), but latria (worship and adoration) are given to God alone. (c.f. Lumen Gentium 66; CCC 971 - 973, 2083 -2084 ; Peter Kreeft's, Catholic Christianity; Summa Theologiae II-II, q. 103, a. 4; III, q. 25, a. 5).

Corpus Christi

CORPUS CHRISTI

On Sunday, June 19, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, often referred to as Corpus Christi. A tradition often associated with Corpus Christi is a procession of the Blessed Sacrament in the community, ending with Benediction. This year, weather permitting, we will have a short procession after the 11 am Mass. A procession is a very concrete, visual way to witness to and celebrate our Catholic faith. Please plan to join us.

Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.
