COFFEE SOCIAL

We invite you to stay after the 9 am & 11 am Mass this Sunday, June 25 for our monthly coffee social in the Parish Hall. This is an ideal time to come together to renew existing friendships and to form new ones. A special invitation is extended to new parishioners who would like to get better acquainted with St. Patrick's Parish community.

A HEART-FELT THANKS

As many of you know, Deacon Terry Osmar has had a recent health scare. Deacon Terry would like you to know that he is on the mend. His recovery would not have been so miraculous without all of the thoughts and prayers from the parishioners of St. Patrick Parish. He sends his heart-felt thanks and is looking forward to returning to his Deacon's Perch when he receives his doctors okay.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR OUR MONTHLY COFFEE FELLOWSHIP

A coffee fellowship sign-up sheet can be found on the table in the narthex. We are looking for volunteers to host our monthly coffee fellowship from July to December 2023.

You can volunteer on your own or you can ask other parishioners to help you. You can also volunteer as a family or as a group (e.g.: SVDP, CWL, Knights of Columbus, Children’s Liturgy, ushers, etc.). As a volunteer for the coffee fellowship you or your family or group should be prepared to set up the tables and chairs, plate the food, make the coffee and tea, put out the treats and then clean up afterwards, including the cleaning and putting away of the coffee maker, dishes, etc. as well as the taking down all of the tables and chairs.

THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS

Tradition highlights seven sins as especially dangerous or “deadly.” They are the soul-deadening opposites to the soul-enlivening virtues commended in the Beatitudes:

Pride is self-assertion and selfishness (the opposite of poverty of spirit which is humility and selflessness).

Avarice is greed, the selfish reach to grab and keep for oneself (the opposite of mercy which is the reach to give, to share with others, even the undeserving).

Envy resents another’s happiness (the opposite of mourning which shares another’s unhappiness).

Wrath wills harm and destruction (the opposite of meekness which refuses to harm and peacemaking which prevents destruction).

Sloth refuses to exert the will toward the good even when it is present (the opposite of hunger and thirst for righteousness which is the passionate desire for good even when it is absent).

Lust dissipates and divides the soul desiring every attractive body (the opposite of purity of heart which centres and unifies the soul, desiring the one God alone).

Gluttony wants to consume an inordinate amount of worldly goods (the opposite of being persecuted which is to be deprived of even ordinate necessities). Source: Peter Kreeft’s Catholic Christianity.

SVDP PANTRY IN NEED OF FOOD FOR THE SUMMER MONTHS

During the summer months food donations to the SVDP pantry decline, but the need for food support does not. Food donations may be placed in the SVDP box located in the narthex of the church or may be dropped off at the parish office during weekday office hours. There is a continuing to need for: cereal, peanut butter, kids snacks, canned fruit, Kraft Dinner, Chef-Boyardee, juice boxes, pasta sauce and “dinner” sides. As always, the SVDP Society is grateful for your continued and generous support.

PROVIDENCE AND VOCATION IN “FR. STU”

“Father Stu,” a movie based on the true story of an improbable journey from boxer to priest, was a passion project for Mark Wahlberg and Mel Gibson, both Catholics.

The movie reflects on vocation, explicitly the priesthood, prayer and the nature of suffering. But most significantly, the movie addresses the most important work we are ever going to do - discerning God’s call for our lives - no matter what our vocation.

Bishop Robert Barron has reviewed the movie and you are encouraged to listen to his review and then, if you so choose and have not already done so, watch the movie. To watch the review, please visit: wordonfire.org/videos/bishop-barrons-commentaries/providence-and-vocation-in-father-stu-2/
